

LIBRARY CIRCULATING MEMBERSHIP

The Grand Rapids Children’s Museum is proud to partner with area libraries by offering a circulating library membership program. The circulating membership allows library members to use their library card to check out a free day pass to GRCM. It’s a unique benefit to your library members and a great way for your patrons to experience the hands-on play and unique programs at GRCM. Library memberships are available for $250 per year and valid for one year from the date of transaction.

Some important details to note:

- Patron must have an active library card to check out a GRCM circulating pass
- The pass entitles up to 6 guests (adults or children) to visit the museum one time free of charge
- The pass must be used and returned to any branch location within 1 day of being checked out
- A patron may only check out the GRCM circulating pass one time per year
- Circulating membership passes are available on a first come, first served basis, and holds cannot be placed
- Library patron must present photo ID and circulating pass to the front desk at GRCM
- GRCM will charge $25 to provide a replacement circulating pass
- Circulating library memberships cannot be returned or exchanged and have no cash value
- Pass not valid at GRCM special events
- One pass per district, not per branch. If your district would like to purchase multiple circulating membership passes, please contact Megan Geiken at GRCM
- Patrons must abide by COVID and all GRCM policies and procedures.
